Saturday February 20th

11 am Book discussion

Harper Lee's "To Kill a Mockingbird" combines enlightenment with enchantment while exploring two broad themes: tolerance and justice.

Take a short break and enjoy Light Southern

Refreshments: lemon tartlets, crisp cucumber sandwiches, and cool lemonade.

1 pm Sew Like Boo Radley

Remember how Boo Radley sewed Jem's pants and left them on the fence? What a handy talent, and it's one that you, too, can learn!

You are invited to a workshop on making simple sewing repairs, hemming items and replacing buttons/fasteners. Bring an item in need or we'll provide sample cloth.

Simple sewing kits will also be provided free to participants.
